

Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School

Computer Internet Use Contract

The Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School computers are networked to the Internet. They are equipped with appropriate filters. Due to the numerous web sites on the Internet, some appropriate and some not, Mills River SDA School is instituting this permission slip/waiver to all students and parents.

The computers at our school are to be used for school work only. Only by special permission from the teacher may it be used for e-mails and other activities as they pertain to school assignments.

Students will not install any software on any school systems, or use unauthorized software, games or services. The student's personal addresses, phone numbers and financial information will remain private and not be posted on any sites. Students will follow proper procedures for the use of copyrighted material.

Web sites that deal in pornography, spiritualism, Satan, corruption, ghosts, monsters, and terror are deemed inappropriate. This list is by no means exhaustive and student Internet access will be monitored at all times.

I hereby give my child permission to use the Mills River SDA School computers and to use the Internet. I understand that if inappropriate web sites are accessed by my child, this could be cause for school suspension. The school board will determine appropriate suspension time and requirements for re-admission.

I also understand that there will be times, as deemed by the teacher, when educational games and fun activities will be allowed on the computer.

I further understand that students who bring personal laptops to school are to use them for school related items only and the rules for school computers apply. If the laptop is used to access the Internet, it must have K-9 content filtering set up by the Mills River SDA School IT personnel. If the laptop is used inappropriately, privileges will be lost.

As a parent or legal guardian of the student signing below, I give permission for my student to access networked computer services such as the Internet while at Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School. I understand that individuals and families may be held liable for any inappropriate behavior connected to the use of computers. I agree to help uphold the standards of Mills River SDA School and to work in conjunction with the school in the guidance of appropriate use of said services.
